FOR THE JOURNAL.

FOREIGN NEWS—FIVE DAYS LATER.

Not being papers of the 25th ult., have been received at Norfolk. They announce the arrival of the Steamship Albatross at Portland, Maine, on the 27th, from Liverpool on the 13th, and London on the 14th ult., being five days later.

American affairs had been debated in the House of Lords, and papers relative to the blockade had been promised shortly by Earl Russell.

The great exhibition building (World's Fair) at London has been completed.

The Pemberton Coal Mine, near Newcastle, had been flooded and a thousand hands thrown out of employment.

The Steamship Great Britain is announced to leave for New York in April.

English consuls on the 12th instant in London were firm but not. Consuls a share higher, closing at 93, owing to favorable movements of coin and bullion in the Bank of England. American securities unaltered.

LIVERPOOL, 13th Feb.—The sales of Cotton for the last three days amounted to twenty-eight thousand bales, including sixteen thousand to speculators. Market firm, with an upward tendency.

ARRIVAL OF THE NASHVILLE.

The Confederate Steamship Nashville arrived at Beaufort, N. C., on Sunday morning, the 23d ult. Federal soldiers fired twenty-two (22) shots without effect. She carried about three million dollars worth of stores, principally for the Confederate Departments. [The date is evidently a mistake. It ought to be Friday the 24th.—JOURNAL.]

She destroyed, near the Gulf Stream, a Yankee schooner, bound from Philadelphia to St. Domingo. The Nashville steamed up to the blockade squadron in defiance of it, and although at one time within musket shot, she steamed on until protected by the guns of Fort Macon, and beyond the reach of her charged pursuers.

Commander Pegram and Paymaster Taylor have arrived at Richmond, and a portion of her freight is now being delivered in front of the Treasury building. Commander Pegram speaks in glowing terms of the hospitalities of England. He thinks that Belgium will soon recognize the South. The authorities at Bermuda had prohibited the Nashville from sailing there.

The Nashville was at Gibraltar, and at the latest dates had destroyed twenty-one (21) Yankee vessels.

Nothing very important from the Federal Capital or the army of the Potomac.

FROM SAVANNAH.

AUGUSTA, Geo., March 24, 1862.

A gentleman from Savannah says that on Saturday morning Commodore Tatnall's fleet engaged one of the Federal batteries near Savannah. He lost one man and then retired.

MARTIAL LAW IN RICHMOND—LIQUOR ESTABLISHMENTS CLOSED.

RICHMOND, Va., March 24, 1862.

President Davis has issued a proclamation declaring martial law in Richmond and ten miles of the surrounding country, suspending all civil jurisdiction except that of the Mayor of Richmond; also suspending, under the authority of Congress, the writ of habeas corpus.

All the distilleries have been ordered to be closed, the sales of liquor of any kind prohibited, and the establishments of liquor of any kind prohibited, and the establishments of liquor of any kind prohibited.

LATER FROM THE NORTH—LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

FEDERAL CONGRESS—SINOW IN NORTHERN NEW YORK—SWINDLING CONTRACTORS.

THE HERALD ON THE POTOMAC AND SHENANDOAH ARMIES, &c., &c.

NOTICE, Va., March 24, 1862.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 14th—Cotton—Sales for the week of 51,000 bales, including 17,000 to speculators and 10,000 to exporters. The market was firmer, but prices were unaltered. Orleans fair 14 1/2, do. middling 12 1/2. Stock 25,000 bales, including 14,000 American.

Headstuffs were steady, except corn, which was dull at 98c. for mixed. Provisions were declining. Consols 93 1/2. New York, Feb. 27th—The money market is active.—Foreign exchange is dull; first class bills 113. United States sixes, registered, 1881, 93 cents. Cotton—Middling 15 1/2, 25 cents.

Consols.—In the House on Thursday a joint resolution was introduced to print Washington's Farewell Address, Jackson's proclamation on Nullification, and the Declaration of Independence, for general distribution, which was referred.

Upton, who claimed to represent the Fairfax district, in Virginia, has been declared not entitled to the seat.

Show in Northern section of New York is five and six cent on a level. Fears are entertained of the inundation of the Hudson and Mohawk rivers.

Starting developments have been made by the investigating committee, and the swindling contractors are shaking in their boots.

The Herald admits that the armies of the Potomac and Shenandoah must be defeated before anything decisive can be accomplished. It says that the moral effect of the measure of the central of the United States must be removed.

The latest advice from New Madrid represent the Federal army twenty thousand strong, within two days march of that place. A skirmish occurred on Saturday between their advance guard of one thousand cavalry, and a force of two hundred under Gen. Thompson. Gen T. was driven in. The Federal loss was twenty-five.

The Confederates are in large force at New Madrid, and expect to whip the Federals there.

Advice from Nashville represent that only three Union flagships flying there. The Lincoln soldiers are surprised and chagrined on account of the little sympathy exhibited for the Union.

Capt. Morgan captured ninety Federals on last Thursday night.

Every night the Federal pickets are killed or captured. The Federal pickets now extend their operations to Franklin, twenty miles south of Nashville.

There was a skirmish at Savannah, Miss., near Fastport, on Friday last. Eighteen Federals, from the gun-boats, were killed. Four were killed on shore.

Gen. Johnston is falling back to a convenient supporting distance of the Charleston Road.

A battle is expected every day with the Federals at Boston Mountain.

LATER FROM MEMPHIS.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 4, 1862.

A report from New Madrid, Missouri, states that the Federal army was thirty miles from that place, still advancing upon it. Their guard was five miles off. No fighting yet.

The Federals at Nashville are conducting themselves with marked propriety. All the Confederate soldiers on the banks are being ordered to a company, belonging to Col. Bates' Regiment, for strong, was arrested on Thursday night while crossing the river, taking his way home.

But few stores are open in Nashville. Two Federal flags were flying from the capitol and the Court House. There have been no arrests of private citizens.

Reinforcements are coming forward to Memphis, in defense of the Mississippi valley. Gen. Johnston is falling back to Decatur. [Decatur county is in the West central part of Tennessee. Tennessee river forms its entire Eastern boundary, and Bech river flows through it.—JOURNAL.]

LATER FROM EUROPE.

GENEVILLE, Va., March 4th, 1862.

The Steamship Arabia arrived at Halifax last Saturday, bringing Liverpool dates via Queenstown, to the 16th February.

The American question was occupying much of the attention of Parliament. Attention had been called to the state blockade, the distress in the manufacturing districts, &c.

The government was very busy preparing all the information in its possession relative to the blockade, to lay before the French press.

The French press think that the questions relative to Mexican affairs will lead to the fall of the Palmerston Cabinet. It is believed that Mexico will be coerced into a monarchy.

It is believed in Rome that Austria meditates a war against Piedmont.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Consols 93 1/2.

HAVER, Feb. 15.—Cotton—Sales for the week of 13,500 bales. Orleans tres ordinaires 16 1/2.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 16.—Cotton—Sales to-day (Saturday) of 12,000 bales, including 7,000 to speculators and exporters. Quotations are unaltered and the market is quiet.

FR. IN THE NORTH AND WEST.

Gen. Landor, of the Federal army, is dead. Gen. Shields succeeds him.

The evacuation of Columbia has been officially announced. The report from Com. Foote that the stores and equipments, and perhaps the town has been burned, is contradicted.

It is said that Andrew Johnson will be appointed a Brigadier General, to act as Military Governor of Tennessee.

The Treasury Department has ordered that all the Cotton taken at Nashville, valued at one hundred thousand dollars, be sent to New York.

Fortifications for the defense of Delaware Bay have been recommended, at a cost of eight hundred thousand dollars.

The Federal frigate Vermont was spoken on the 27th ult., off Cape Cod. She had lost her rudder, both anchors, sails, &c., and the vessel is supposed to be lost.

The St. Lawrence sailed on the 24th inst., from Boston for Hampton Roads.

The War Department refuses to transmit letters to the Southern States. The steamer St. Louis sailed to-day with four hundred and eighty-six thousand dollars in treasure, for New York.

New York, March 2.—Foreign Exchange one hundred and thirteen. There is not much change in the price of Stocks.

A dispatch dated Harper's Ferry, Feb. 25th, states that Gen. Zerk occupied Harper's Ferry on Wednesday by means of a pontoon bridge.
